

WAR BEGUN UPON OUIJA AS MENACE

Ministers and Physicians Join in Denouncing the Baleful Effect As Four of Its Devotees Are Judged Mad

Thing of Evil is Verdict Given by Church; Causes Frenzy Which is Communicable, Psychologists' Statement

Stirred to indignation at the havoc wrought by an ouija board in the homes of four El Cerrito families and by revelations which were followed by the commitment of four women to state hospitals for the insane, physicians, psychologists, ministers and others united today in denouncing as a serious menace what has been tolerated as a harmless toy.

It was the ouija board, of the belief held in its powers, that took from the Italian colony in El Cerrito three mothers and a fifteen-year-old girl and left the fathers, who must work all day, to care for the smaller children. It was a belief in the ouija that gave little Rosa Bottini, as she carries her baby sister through the streets, that faraway look that may mean that she will have to join her mother in the asylum.

Judge R. H. Lattimer and an insanity commission have committed Mrs. Josephine Soldavini, Mrs. Maria Moro, Mrs. Santina Bottini and Adeline Bottini to the asylums at Stockton and Napa. Charles Soldavini, Louis and Harry Farnario and G. B. Bottini were released.

EFFORT INAUGURATED TO STAMP OUT CRAZE

With the spectacle of El Cerrito's disrupted homes in mind and with the knowledge that four women of that city have been sent to state asylums for the insane as a result of their faith in the little varnished boards, a determined effort to expose the ouija for what it is and to stamp out the craze for its use has been inaugurated.

The ouija produces hysteria and sometimes insanity, say the physicians and the psychologists.

"It is an instrument of evil, say the ouija devotees, those who have lectured and demonstrated on the board in Oakland, join in the warning against the general use of the board.

Heading a number of those interviewed today as to their opinions on the danger to the community of the ouija craze, Dr. Fred Cunningham, superintendent of the State Asylum for the Insane at Stockton, said:

"The ouija, I consider is dangerous as it produces manifestations of hysteria and a single belief which excludes all others. Those who accept it as being occult have no mind for anything else."

Voicing the sentiments of the church, Dr. Frank Shiley, of First Presbyterian church, said:

"Unquestionably the church looks upon the ouija as a device of the devil. Under the name of ouija, wonders, its effect on the user is a spiritual, moral, and mental decline. It is extremely dangerous for its use to the ouija even in a spirit of idle curiosity."

HYSTERIA CAUSED BY USE, DOCTOR SAYS

Dr. Jau Don Ball of Oakland, the noted psychologist, neurologist, and psychiatrist, made the following comment on the El Cerrito situation:

"Use of the ouija board is dangerous, particularly for the belief it often occasions. The manifestations are of an occult nature, when in reality they are but manifestations of the hysterical condition of the individual. There have been many cases of persons becoming insane through use of these boards."

"A peculiar thing about the ouija, of any such emotional phenomena as it appears to have been conditioned is that it is readily communicable. In earlier days whole villages have become afflicted with a religious frenzy. The El Cerrito ouija manifestations appear to be the same. When the automatic, subconscious control of the ouija is mistaken for something occult and not of this world, there is always the danger of hysteria and ouija phenomena are not always a manifestation of hysteria or disease. It may occur in a perfectly normal, or so-called normal, person. It is the subversion of the control of the ouija emotions. When one talks of being in a trance, in connection with these phenomena, or of talking to the spirits, they are in danger."

Dancing to Be Chief Feature Of Parthenia Festival by College Girls at Berkeley

MISS VIRGINIA BYRNE, one of the dancing maids, who will lend charm to this year's "Parthenia" at the University of California.

Entire Co-ed Population Working For Success of Pageant

Has the Parthenia, annual dramatic pageant of the women students of the University of California, outlived its usefulness? University publications, professors and members of the student body from time to time have said that it has. Today several hundred of the women cried emphatically that it had not.

The Parthenia was started a number of years ago. It was planned that it should be written each year by a woman student and prepared, costumed and enacted by her sisters. The theme was to be invariably the emergence of a girl from maidenhood into womanhood. "Parthenia" was the name of the first of the series.

For three or four years the series ran along. A tremendous amount of time was annually involved and the pageant was not always so successful as it was the first year or two. In fact, its popularity began

DRIVE OPENS ON SPEEDERS EAST OF BAY

Campaign is Outlined Before Oakland Council Designed to Minimize Tragedies on Community Thoroughfares

Governor Stephens Criticized and Judge Edgar Praised in Resolutions Adopted at a Mass Meeting in Berkeley

Declaring that the city is having more than its share of maimings and killings because of reckless automobile handling, Commissioner Morse today outlined a campaign for Oakland's participation in a national plan to reduce the number of automobile mishaps.

Investigation of traffic rules of the chief cities throughout the country is being made and a new ordinance is under preparation, which Morse will lay before the City Council shortly, providing new rules for the protection of pedestrians against reckless automobile drivers.

In outlining the campaign this morning Morse issued an appeal for co-operation by the public in making streets and street crossings safer, and asked for the suggestions of automobile drivers.

INSTRUCTIONS ISSUED ON "SAFETY" WEEK

"At the same time the Commissioner is issuing instructions to the Chief of Police for the observance of a 'Safety First' period to be held between April 1 and April 15. These two weeks will be observed throughout the country as part of the national plan to minimize accidents and reduce the death toll of carelessness."

"Oakland has had and is having more than its share of maimings and killings due to reckless automobile handling," read Morse's report on the situation. "I am fully determined that this must be reduced to its minimum. Death and sorrow ride at the wheel of every speeding machine. If drivers would only visualize their own loved ones stretched broken and bleeding on the pavement, then more caution would be observed."

"The streets and crossings of Oakland must be made safe for pedestrians. The police department will call attention of motorists to the most serious infractions of rules of traffic. Pedestrians will also come in for cautioning. I refer particularly to jay-walkers."

"The use of reckless driving that absolutely must cease in Oakland is that of motorists violating the ordinance relating to the passing of street cars. Those taking on a letting off passengers. Another phase of this same subject is the mix-ups between automobiles, trucks, taxicabs and street cars."

"I will welcome the co-operation of the thinking driver. Reckless driving is to be reduced to its minimum."

In Oakland's "Safety First" observance will be incorporated some of the suggestions brought forth at a recent meeting in San Francisco of the National Traffic Officers' Association. Morse has prepared statistics showing that during eleven months of the past year nineteen persons were killed and twenty-four injured on streets and highways, and that during the same period thirty-two persons were killed and thirty-four injured on highways.

Resolutions commending the policy adopted by Judge Edgar in his observation of the crossing, and in his faith and courage in dealing with the speeding cars, were adopted at the meeting last night.

Holland Denies Allied Request For Ex-Kaiser

LONDON, March 5.—(By United Press.)—The Netherlands government today, for the second time, refused to deliver the former German emperor to the allies for trial.

THE HAGUE, March 5.—(By Associated Press.)—The Dutch government today, for the second time, refused to deliver the former German emperor to the allies for trial.

In a note addressed to David Lloyd George, the British premier, however, the government promised to take all necessary means to minimize the liberty of Wilhelm and prevent him from endangering the world's peace.

The second communication, from the Dutch government, which was delivered in London this afternoon, states that these precautions will be taken "on the spot." It is understood the Dutch authorities have assumed allied diplomats that close guarding and censorship will be instituted when Wilhelm occupies his estate at Doorn.

Wieler Jury May Lose Liberty on Further Threats

Attempts at Tampering Might Have Two-Fold Purpose, Cleary Tells Court

Declaring that perhaps others than those favorable to the defense had threatened jurors in the trial of John G. Wieler, on trial for criminal syndicalism, and that it might have been done to create prejudice, or was a "plan" to test the jury, Attorney W. B. Cleary today asked Judge Jas. G. Quinn to have the jury locked up in case there was any further such attempts.

"The jury was excused during the making of the motion, when Cleary announced at the opening of the case that he had something to say regarding the reported jury tampering."

"I first learned there was another reported jury tampering when I purchased the evening papers, and I think was due counsel in the case to be notified of such attempts."

"In my long experience in the trial of cases I have learned that such attempts are made for a two-fold purpose, one to create prejudice in the defense, but as a plan to allow a motion for dismissal of a case when one side finds it going against them. It is also done to create prejudice in the jury. I ask that if another attempt is made that the jury be placed in custody, where they will be protected from such attempts."

Deputy District Attorney A. J. Rogers then said he did not know as there was any reply to be made by the district attorney's office, as he did not understand that they were in any way accused.

"Not by any means," declared Cleary. "I do not accuse any one connected with the prosecution. There are doubtless sympathizers on both sides who might make such an attempt."

"Very well," will I entertain such a motion in case there is such another attempt. Proceed with the case," ruled Judge Quinn.

Judge Quinn had previously stated that he did not contemplate locking up the jury at this time, due to the expense to the county, but that it might later be necessary.

The trial opened with Rogers making vehement charges of bad faith against Cleary because he was asking J. H. Dolson, the witness, questions regarding the Lawrence, Mass., textile strike and the alleged persecution of I. W. W. members.

Dolson said the subject had been discussed but objected to Rogers taking it for granted that I. W. W. members had been shooting before they were convicted.

LONDON, March 5.—Generals Musilovich and Brusiloff, commanders of the Russian military forces, are to assume joint command of the Russian military forces, according to advices here today.

The Soviet government plans an extensive reorganization of its army, now largely under command of capable generals, formerly in the czar's army. Under direction of these men, British military experts are assisting in the reorganization, which is being carried out in one of the most formidable military machines in Europe.

The reorganization plans, according to information here, include placing General Polinaiev, former time war minister under the czar, in command of all the troops to the west of Moscow.

Brusiloff, according to these advices, has been placed in charge of the campaign against the Polish forces in the Berghina district. He was in charge of the Russian invasion in Galicia early in the world war.

Democrats Seek Wilson Views on Treaty Clauses

Confidence and Statement on Proposals Under Debate Asked by Leader

WASHINGTON, March 5.—Still hoping that the peace treaty may be passed from another deadlock, Democratic senators sought today to lay directly before President Wilson the latest proposals discussed as a possible compromise basis on Article 10.

While reconsideration of the Republican reservations proceed in the Senate, Senator Hitchcock, of Nevada, the Administration leader, is understood to have written the President asking that he see and administer senators and give them his views as to whether he would accept the proposals now under consideration.

The proposals are said to contemplate a change in the Republican article ten reservation so that military force and other specific agencies would be named as means which the United States would decline to use to preserve the integrity of the other league members.

WASHINGTON, March 5.—By United Press.—A definite move to amend the peace treaty is expected to be made in the Senate tomorrow, it was indicated by Senators today.

It may be a motion to recommend the treaty to the foreign relations committee, thus getting it out of the Senate, or a motion to amend the treaty, and thus come quickly to the core of the whole matter. The debate long ago passed from the high ground of parliamentary procedure and language upon which the Senate usually conducts its deliberations.

The consideration of reservations went on today. Senator Lodge, angered by the refusal of Democrats to accept the treaty, declared that he would offer no more amendments to the Lodge reservations.

Senator Knox today offered in the Senate a resolution providing that the credit of the United States shall not be pledged by any Representative of the United States or by the Senate to any nation without prior consent of Congress. The Senate is considering the resolution regarding the powers of the reparation commission to interfere with American commerce.

French Obtain Recognition of Prior Claims for Battle-torn Areas; Italian Parley With the Jugo-Slavs Fails

WASHINGTON, March 5.—A summary of President Wilson's message to the premiers on the Adriatic situation is to be made public by the State Department, probably late today. Officials indicated that the message would not be given out at this time.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS. LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE. WASHINGTON, March 5.—President Wilson may warn the Allies that it will be necessary to withdraw the treaty of Versailles from the Senate if the Turks are allowed to remain in Constantinople, it was learned today. The President is understood to have such a step under advisement.

It was pointed out on high authority that should the United States join the League of Nations and the Turks be permitted to remain in Constantinople this country would be in the position of being obligated to protect a settlement to which it is opposed.

The issue of whether the sultan shall be allowed to stay in Constantinople has failed to overshadow the Adriatic disputes, according to developments today.

AMERICA WILL BE CONSULTED AS TO TERMS

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS. LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE. WASHINGTON, March 5.—The United States, in the opinion of officials here, will be consulted as to terms of the Turkish settlement before the document is handed to representatives of the Constantinople government for signature. The United States is considered by the Allied governments to possess a special interest in the solution of the Turkish problem as a potential member of the League of Nations.

Following the negotiations of the United States and the Allies, the American representatives made a number of efforts to engage the American commissioners in discussing the Turkish problem, particularly as to the disposition of Constantinople. Inasmuch as the United States never signed the treaty, the government is understood to have been firm in its stand that it was not interested in the Turkish question, except through the League of Nations.

Eastbay Opens Campaign to Reduce Motoring Tragedies

Piedmont; E. C. Graff, 1326 Broadway, and Roy Wilson of 1455 Eighteenth avenue paid $10 fines each for speeding. H. W. Schnebly, Oakland contractor, cut a corner and was fined $5. The minimum fine was imposed when it was shown that Schnebly was driving at only twelve miles per hour when the offense was committed.

DRIVER PAYS $10 FOR EXCEEDING SPEED LIMIT

Police Judge George Samuels fined Clarence Mollett $10 for exceeding the speed limit by two miles. Judge Edgar of Berkeley fined Elmer Smith of 2201 Grand street $5 for speeding. Smith said that since his arrest he had tested his speedometer and found that it was four miles off, which had caused him to exceed the speed limit by three miles, while he thought he was driving three miles over the limit, which was, which brought the minimum fine.

When questioned this morning concerning a rumor about the City Hall to the effect that he had said jail sentences would be imposed upon all persons found guilty of driving faster than forty miles per hour in Oakland, Judge Smith said: "That is not true. I think every case should be dealt with according to the weight of the evidence. If a man drives his machine faster than forty miles per hour, or exceeds the speed limit in a lesser degree, I shall in all cases consider the circumstances. Doctors, for instance, when responding to urgent calls, cannot be fined or sentenced for speeding when it is a case of life or death. It is foolish, unfair, to say that all persons found guilty of speeding will be fined or sentenced. All will depend upon the individual case."

5000 Armenians Are Massacred by Turks

PARIS, March 5.—The number of Armenians who were victims in the massacre in the Marash region of Asiatic Turkey last month does not exceed 5000, according to detailed information received by French officials. Reports from London yesterday stated the number would be between 15,000 and 20,000. French officials admit the gravity of the incident, but point out it was impossible to foresee and prevent the massacre, as the army of occupation is not large enough to furnish strong guards at every point where the Turks are likely to engage in an uprising.

Payment of $500 to Every War Veteran Urged of U. S.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.

LEARNED WIRE TO TREASURY.

WASHINGTON, March 5.—Payment of a lump sum of $500 each to persons who served in the military or naval forces of the United States was urged before the House today and means committee today by Marvin Gates Sperry, national president of the Private Soldiers and Sailors Legion.

He opposed proposals of Representatives of other soldier organizations for adjusted compensation va-ying from $30 to $50 for every year of service, and said the services of 4,000,000 young Americans

never could be paid by "the skim-ing, miserly additional compensation bills pending before Congress.

The witness declared that the funding of $400,000,000 annual interest due on foreign obligations proved that the government was

"not weak financially and could give financial aid to all former service men."

Sperry charged that J. H. Halper,

a member of the legislature committee of the Rank and File Veterans' Association was a Socialist and communist, and "had tried to turn over the Private Soldiers and Sailors' Legion to the communist Party of New York."

S. Savenbein, chairman of the Rank and File Veterans' Association, told the committee that a composite bill, including land grants, vocational training and financial aid, suggested by the American Legion, "would keep the committee talking two or three years."

"The American Legion did not favor a bonus at their national convention, but now they are fathering

it," he added.

"The legion fathers everything

after some other organization does the work and accomplishes results,"

Savenbein said.

The witness said his organization was allied with organized labor "because the members are of the working class."

GIRLS MUST MIGRATE TO BE MARRIED

NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—The Salvation Army in the British Isles, working in co-operation with the government, is promoting emigration of the approximately 1,250,000 women in the island population there.

Commissioner David C. Lamb, London foreign secretary of the army

on a mission to the United States, has announced here.

Sperry said emigration is the only way to solve the problem of the women of the islands.

"We offer no apology for active propaganda designed to procure a better distribution of the island

There are a million and a quarter

more women than men in the British Isles today, and one of the biggest after-war tasks assigned the Salvation Army in Britain is to encourage female emigration and direct it to those colonies in the British empire such as western Canada and portions of Africa and Australia

where there are more males than female inhabitants. The prospect of placing female domestics in the United States has not been overlooked.

The Salvation Army has despatched several shiploads of emigrants to Canada already. We help them make arrangements to leave the old country, provide transportation when necessary and through our world-wide organization see to it that the emigrants are safely settled in the new land.

"Our records show that of the girls who emigrated some years ago

to certain sections where women were in the minority 60 per cent were married within three years of their arrival. This fact and the opportunities for work at good wages in other lands are not without significance to the tens of thousands of thoughtful and enterprising women

in the British Isles."

Other after-war conditions in the British Isles included the virtual disappearance of the vagrant, and the shortage of agricultural labor

due in part to the wartime utilization of more than 2,000,000 acres of grass land, Commissioner Lamb said.

The success or failure of "local option" in Scotland will furnish a

"good indication" on the prospect for prohibition in the Isles, he said, adding that the "probabilities are that the public houses will go in many parts of Scotland."

"In Great Britain as a whole, however, the tendency is toward a restriction on the sale of liquor in public houses—corresponding to the American saloons—and continuing limitation as to hours. This makes for temperance rather than prohibition. However much they may scorn English brewers are taking the prohibition threat more seriously than they are willing to admit, and are spending large sums in counter propaganda. They are obviously worried.

"Everybody is waiting to analyze the results of nation-wide prohibition

in the United States," Lamb says.

Political Field

ST. PAUL, March 5.—The name of Herbert Hoover will appear on some county ballots now being prepared for the state-wide Republican primaries to be held

March 15, according to reports reaching here today.

This action is taken despite declarations of Gustave Lindquist,

state chairman, that Hoover's

name could not appear unless he announced himself as a Republican candidate.

The Hennepin county committee announced in Minneapolis today that the ballot will contain the names of Major General Leonard

Wood, Warren G. Harding, Hiram

W. Johnson, Senator Poindexter

and Governor Lowden.

War of Women Against Men To Be Severest, Says Author

BY INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE.

LEARNED WIRE TO TREASURY.

PARIS, March 5.—The world's greatest and bloodiest war will be fought between armies of men and women as the sensational prediction made today by Eduard Pon-tie, well-known French writer and bitter opponent of woman suffrage.

"The army of amazons will have superior numbers over the army of men," continued Pontie.

Women are eager to revenge the long ages of submission to man and it is possible they may conquer.

"I believe that the only way to forestall this struggle is by legislating polygamy, thus reducing the numbers of unmarried women. But polygamy is not practicable unless the high cost of living is reduced.

France is not the only nation possessing an excess of women over

men. The same regrettable disproportion is found throughout nearly the whole of Europe.

"The apostles of feminism say that problem will be solved by opening all avenues of work to women, so that all can prove self-supporting and have no need for husbands. Perhaps this is true, but when that condition of affairs

arrives we shall no longer have the two sexes living in harmony. As the world population increases competition for bread will become

MONEY WILLED EXCEEDS ESTATE

Mrs. Mary A. G. Blake, who died at the age of 86 at her home, 3915 Woodruff avenue, Oakland, February 5, bequeathed considerably more property than she possessed, according to the report of the executor, to Superior Judge E. C. Robinson. The value of the estate is given as $30,470.50, while specific bequests totaling nearly $45,000 are included in her will.

In addition, $5 is left to every nephew or niece unmentioned in the will and who proves himself or herself to be such, while the residue of the estate is left to three friends in Oakland, Mrs. Eugene Cornell, Eudette Cornell and C. A. Phillips. But, according to the executor, there is no residue. Mining property whose par value is considerably more than $100,000 is declared to be without present worth.

Judge Robinson has admitted the will to probate and fixed the bonds of the executor at $25,000. It is stated the legacies will have their requests lessened in proportion to the deficiency.

The following are left $5000 each, totalling $40,000: Edwin J. Gordon, Berkeley; Mrs. A. C. Taylor, Los Angeles; Mrs. Mary E. Chamberlain, Alameda; Mrs. Alice M. Spinnay and Miss Edna Spinnay, both of San Francisco; F. D. Cornell, Los Angeles; Mrs. Eugene Cornell, Oakland; Mrs. Anna C. Phillips. A dozen distant relatives and friends are left sums ranging from $100 to $3000 and totalling $4500.

Judge Robinson stated today that he was asked a considerable time before Mrs. Blake's death to invest in some of the mining property in question, but did not do so. He believes it may prove valuable later on.

CLUB TO FIGHT CHANGE ASKED

Protest against alleged attempts on the part of certain members of the fire department to secure a modification of requirements of height, weight and age in examination has been filed with the Civil Service Board in behalf of the Health Club, an independent organization of firemen, through William B. Smith, legal voice of the club.

Smith asks that the present rules of the Civil Service Board governing fire department examinations be allowed to stand and that an entrance examination be called at once for the benefit of former service men desirous of entering the department.

Secretary Frank Colburn of the board declares that the question of waiving height and weight requirements so that the present substitutes may be able to compete in the examination has already been laid before Commissioner Morse by Fire Chief Elliott Whitehead, but that the Commissioner has never brought the issue to the Civil Service Board.

'C' NIGHT GUARDS TO HAVE MUSIC AT LONG VIGIL

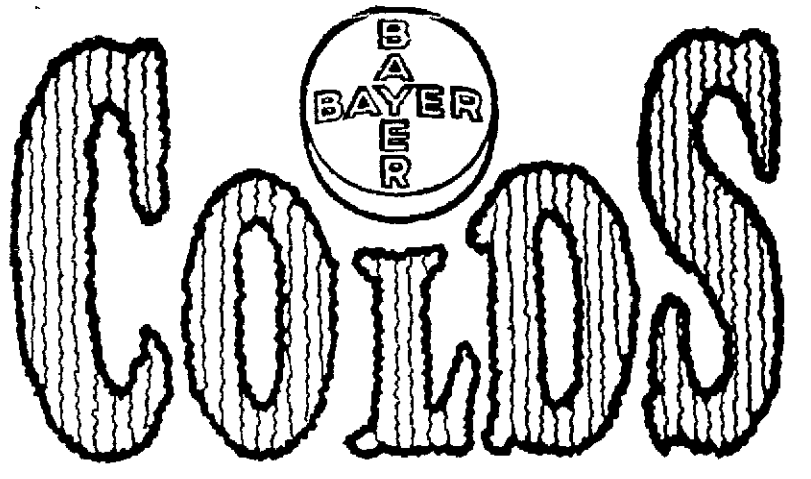

BERKELEY, March 5.—No longer in fear of invasion by members of their rival students from Stanford, members of the sophomore class of the University of California will nevertheless guard the symbols on the Berkeley campus as past custom ordains, while the members of the college basketball teams play in Harmon gymnasium.

Without the excitement of an impending invasion, it will be difficult to secure enough men to stand the watch, say the students, and to meet this deficiency, entertainment will be provided for those that spend the night at the "C."

KERMESS DRESS REHEARSAL HELD

The Mills College Kermess dance, which will be offered as a spring festival tomorrow afternoon and evening in the Municipal opera house, has been perfected and but awaits the rising of the curtain. Telling the story of the ages in the movements of the dance and costumes, the young women of Mills College, this afternoon participated in the dress rehearsal.

Heretofore the Kermess has been produced on the campus at Mills. Such great throngs were attracted by the festivities of the girls' work that last year it was found difficult to accommodate them.

Nothing Pays Better Than Taking Care of Yourself

Men seem to care more for money than they do for health. They do not seem to realize that it pays better to take care of health than to take care of business. The best asset any one can have is healthy kidneys. The kidneys are more important than a bank account, for healthy kidneys will keep you alive, while a big bank balance won't.

The signs of bad kidneys are rheumatism, lumbago, neuralgia, dropsy, pains in the back, spots before the eyes, dizziness, sleeplessness and puffs under the eyes—all the results of poisons that the kidneys fail to filter out of the blood.

The cure is simple. All you need is something that will get the excess uric acid out of the system. Nothing does this so effectively and safely as Dr. Pierce's Anuric (anti-uric-acid) Tablets, which cost only 60 cents in drug stores. Anuric is an unusual medicine that dissolves uric acid much the same as hot water dissolves sugar or salt. It will pay you well to take care of your kidneys and health by taking Dr. Pierce's Anuric Tablets.

By writing Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel in Buffalo, N. Y., and sending sample, you can have urinalysis free of charge. Send 10c for trial package of tablets, or 50c for "Medical Adviser."

OAKLAND TRIBUNE, Oakland's greatest evening newspaper, assures its advertisers that the circulation of this paper reaches every day over 250,000 readers.

Child Hygiene Bureau Wanted In Eastbay

By EDNA B. KINARD

A municipal bureau of child hygiene under the control of the bureau to which Dr. Ethel Waters was recently appointed director, is the one which has been set by the California Civic League through its various centers. Already San Francisco center with its 1200 members, has pledged itself to an active campaign which has as its inspiration the establishment of such an institution in this city. Berkeley center has given heed to the plan for study and investigation which has been framed by Dr. Adelaide Brody and center the lend consideration to the program this month. A swift campaign of education is being conducted for the civic workers who have at heart the welfare of the children of the state. A carefully prepared synopsis of study by Dr. Brody is being circulated throughout the women's clubs of the state. Its most salient features include a survey of the child mortality in periods of two weeks, up to one year. Under the plan, attention will be given to the status of the family, and the causes of death. Under the heading of "What the municipality is doing for the child," municipal policy going to reduce infant mortality? parental clinics and lectures; licensing of maternity hospitals and inspection of midwives; infant clinics and health centers for children; talks to mothers and settlement inspectors; milk supply; infant welfare nurses and licensing of foster homes will be considered.

INSPECTION OF VITALS. What the municipality is doing for the living conditions affecting children, tenement house laws and tenement house inspection is considered vital. The problem of the runabout child is to be approached from the angle of the playgrounds and parks, kindergartens, dental care and correction, including school, street and municipal grounds. Board of education, economic loss from sickness, exercise, posture and ventilation. Conservation of child life under boards of health, will deal with contagious diseases and correctable defects, care of tonsils, adenoids, vaccination, nutrition.

In covering the subject as to what the municipality is doing for the child hygiene problems, the milk law is highly important and will demand data on the number of milk inspectors, their frequency, and inspection of pasteurization. City execution of the California state law relating to the licensing and inspection of midwives will be studied. Salaries, office assistance and motor provided for infant welfare nurses, baby clinics and health centers including pre-natal care as provided in city and county hospitals will be reviewed.

FREE CLINICS IS PLAN. Free vaccination, the cost and facilities for tonsil and adenoid work, dental clinics, school medical inspection and the health which cover it; appointment, psychological examination; outdoor schools for tubercular children and their control; continuing of working certificates for school children; medical and mental examinations and their cost; medical clinics for school children, are topics which lend themselves to the general investigation.

A full plan is offered for the future municipal child hygiene bureau. Its personnel includes a full time executive with three full time medical assistants, two full time dentists; four dental assistants, who shall be women trained to clean children's teeth. One division will have charge of licensing and inspecting midwives. Maternity hospital, a full time inspectors. Another division will serve as school inspectors. Public health nurses will serve at the clinic and in school work.

PARENTS ARE PLANNING FILM CENSORSHIP. An oversight of the motion picture houses in West Oakland will be kept by the members of the Clawson School Parent-Teacher Association, according to plans which are now in the making. Co-operation of the managers will be sought in the campaign suggested to assure parents that only such films as are proper for children community censorship of the screen plays in which the house directors will be invited to participate is the first which has been attempted in Oakland.

Durant Injured When Pinned Under Racer.

R. C. "Chief" Durant, millionaire racing enthusiast, was slightly scratched but his racing car was completely wrecked when the machine overturned last night as it turned into the straightaway of Talbot road at the foot of the East Oakland hills. The car caught Durant beneath it as it turned over and held him prisoner for twenty minutes until a passing motorist released him.

The accident occurred as Durant was on his way to the Talbot mansion, which he recently purchased. He was driving the racer in which he competed recently at the Los Angeles speedway race track.

Durant was taken to the Talbot mansion following the accident. He was slightly bruised and scratched. Durant said he was not meeting the sudden end of the road, and the roadway, it turned over.

To Make Your Hair Look Naturally Curly.

If millady of the straight, lank hair will adopt the simple, siltine method, she will have as pretty wavy tresses as she could wish to own. The curiness will look so natural and the hair so beautifully soft and glossy, quite different from the obviously artificial curls and the parched, dead appearance of the hair produced by the heated iron.

Liquid siltine can, of course, be obtained at any drug store and a few ounces will keep the hair in curl for many weeks. The perfect, hairless and neither sticky nor greasy, no one need have the least hesitancy in using it. It is best applied with a clean tooth brush, drawing it through the hair from crown to tip just before doing it up. The effect will all that anyone could desire. —Advertisement.

LOS ANGELES MAN GAINS 22 POUNDS.

Hayden Says Tanlac Put Him on His Feet Year Ago—Still Feels Fine.

"As Tanlac has entirely relieved me of my troubles, I have gained twenty-two pounds heavier than I was the day I started taking it. I am always glad to recommend it," said W. R. Hayden, 229 Newland street, Los Angeles, Calif., a carpenter.

"I have not needed it or anything else, as it so completely and permanently rid me of my troubles. I have enjoyed splendid health ever since. However for eight months previous to that time I had suffered from indigestion, constipation, loss of appetite, and when I did manage to eat a little something I suffered from it for hours afterwards. I was a lot weaker, was extremely weak, felt tired and worn-out all the time and was barely able to get around. I also had a terrible cough which gave me a great deal of trouble at night, and between this and my stomach bothering me I could get but little sleep, and always got up feeling tired and exhausted."

"I noticed where Tanlac was benefiting so many people who said their troubles were just like mine. I decided to try it. Well, sir, I began to improve while taking the first bottle, so I continued taking it, and in a short while I was in fine shape. I was soon rid of my stomach trouble, had a fine appetite and could eat just anything I wanted without suffering any bad after effects whatever. My cough almost immediately stopped. I could sleep like a log all night long and had regained my strength and energy, and to this day, a year later, I have not felt the slightest sign of any of my old troubles and am satisfied with the result."

"I have never missed an opportunity since Tanlac put me on my feet to tell of what a wonderful medicine I think it is, and I expect to continue to do so."

Tanlac is sold in San Francisco and Oakland by The Owl Drug Company Stores—Advertisement.

YELLOW MUSTARD FOR RHEUMATISM.

A good hot mustard plaster or poultice is pretty sure to overcome most rheumatic pains and even the most stubborn rheumatism. It is a good, but it's a messy affair and usually blisters.

It is absolutely necessary if you want permanent relief. Bevy's Mustardine, made of true yellow mustard, with pain-relieving ingredients added, is just as hot, is cheaper, cleaner and more effective than the old-fashioned poultice or plaster, and cannot blister.

Besides rheumatism and swelling, Bevy's Mustardine is speedily effective for lumbago, backache, neuritis, pleurisy, bronchitis, sore throat, chest colds and all aches and pains, because heat causes pain—so, because heat draws out the pain, Bevy's Mustardine, by mail, S. ## MOFFITT TO BE BURIED TOMORROW

Funeral services for Harry M. Moffitt, aged 48, United States secret service agent who died at the Providence hospital here yesterday afternoon, will be held at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning from St. Anthony's church with Father Patrick J. Quinn officiating. Moffitt's home was at 1145 East Sixteenth street where he lived with his wife and two children. He died at 4:30 yesterday afternoon of intestinal trouble following influenza.

Entered the service in 1895, when appointed a deputy United States marshal, he changed to the secret service work in 1909. In 1914 he was promoted by Chief William J. Flynn, who commended him for his daring work in apprehending criminals. In 1915 Jagadit Singh Bahadur of India, whom he accompanied on a trip to Yellowstone, gave him a pearl and diamond scarf pin. In 1916 he was again promoted for the capture of H. Russell Wilkin, the $100,000 bad check man. In 1917 he went to Washington as a member of the president's body guard. He was given this latter honor in recognition of his long service. In the late food hoarding investigations, he saved much stuff that was withheld by speculators.

Before entering the government service, Moffitt was a newspaperman on the old Oakland Times, then published by Frank Moffitt, his brother. He is survived by a widow, Mrs. Hattie Moffitt, a brother, Joseph and two minor children, Dorothy and Sheridan.

SEES MENACE OF PLAGUE OF GRASSHOPPERS

The outlook for grasshoppers this season is exceedingly good, according to a bulletin issued by G. H. Hecke, director of agriculture at Sacramento. Owing to the mild weather and the scarcity of rains Old Man Grasshopper is planning on a state-wide tour with his entire family in tow. Indications are that California will this year face the most severe grasshopper menace that has ever before visited the state.

With a shortage of spring rains, it is pointed out in the bulletin, crops on waste areas and range lands will dry rapidly, forcing the grasshopper to migrate in search of food to the green fields and orchards of irrigated districts. This migration is expected to occur at the middle of the growing season.

Plans are now under way to combat the pests before the grass dries in the arid lands.

WINDOW WASHER INJURED

PLAN $2,000,000 HOME OF OPERA

SAN FRANCISCO, March 5.—Search of title preparatory to the purchase of the site of the old St. Ignace Church and College, bounded by Van Ness avenue, Franklin, Hayes and Grove streets, is in progress today for the purpose of erecting a $2,000,000 opera house for the city, whose title and control shall be vested in the Board of Regents of the University of California.

The opera house, when completed, will be the most modern of its kind and will be dedicated as San Francisco's war memorial to her soldier dead.

The purchase price of the site is to be $300,000, on which monthly installments of $1500 have been paid since last fall when the plan was put under way.

An executive committee of fifty and a building committee of thirteen, headed by John S. Drum, chairman, and William H. Crocker, honorary chairman, plan to raise funds for the construction of the building by popular subscription.

MISS PARDEE'S FUNERAL TODAY

Funeral services for Miss Carol Marietta Pardee, aged 27, daughter of former Governor George C. Pardee of California who died yesterday of influenza at the Pardee home at Eleventh and Castro streets, were held this afternoon at the residence, with Rev. Father E. G. Gee of St. Peter's Episcopal Church officiating.

Miss Pardee has been suffering from influenza for some time, but her condition did not become serious until two days ago. She rapidly became worse and died Thursday.

She was prominent member of the Ibbell Club and a promoter of the Peter Pan Club of the West Oakland Home. She was a graduate of the Arts and Crafts School and Miss Head's School.

She is survived by her father and mother and two sisters, Madeline and Helen Pardee. She was born in Oakland.

The funeral today was private.

Man Acquitted of Auto Theft Charge

George Foley, charged with stealing an automobile belonging to a Japanese, who said he discovered him running away with it, has been acquitted by a jury in Judge L. S. Church's court. The Japanese said he jumped on the running board and pulled out the key to the switch and Foley hopped on to a passing machine, riding several blocks before being captured.

Attorney Henry Davis, representing Foley, argued to the jury that the defendant did not try to start the car, but that he accidentally did so. Miss Frances Wilson, deputy district attorney, conducted the case for the prosecution.

Navy Oil Bids Few; Seizure Suggested

WASHINGTON, March 5.—Failure of the Shipping Board to secure bids for even a small portion of the oil fuel needed for its ships during the year beginning April 1 has brought the suggestion that President Wilson be urged to invoke his war powers to meet the situation.

Restoration of full Federal control over the oil industry might be necessary, it was said.

Shipping Board officials said its fuel situation was "overly serious."

On proposals for 24,000,000 barrels they received today bids on 1,500,000 only at prices ranging from 76 to 80 percent higher than last year.

Existing contracts will expire in the next three weeks.

GROUNDING SHIP FLOATED

Did You See Edith At the Dansant Saturday Evening?

She looked so spiffy. Her new dress is a dear, so different, and so suited to her particular style. She told me who had hard work doing it for her, for there were so many to pick from at Cherry's where she always buys her clothes, that she could hardly decide which one to take. I'm going down there just as soon as I can. And the best is, she only has to pay on liberal credit terms, and that does help so much. ## We Are No Stronger Than Our Fighting Blood

Physical Fitness Our Sole Reliance.

Courage without physical fitness is absolutely worthless. That is why our great army was made up only of men who were without the slightest physical defect.

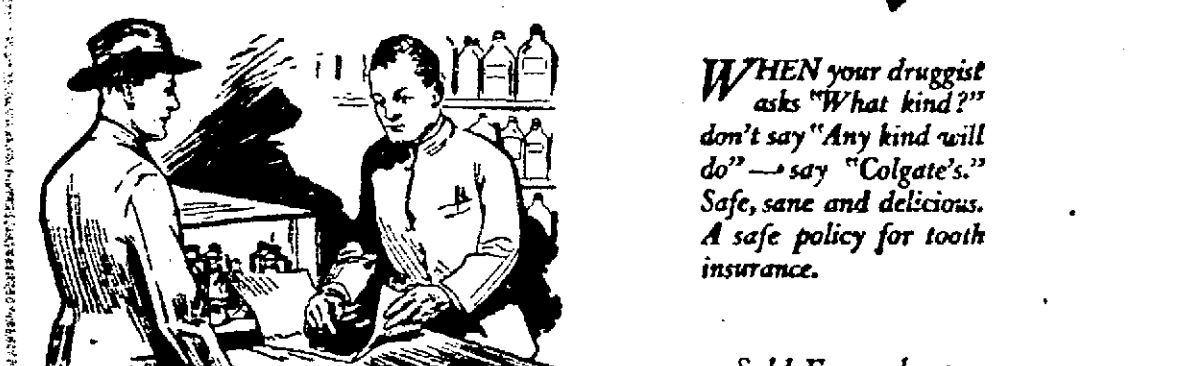

But there is a constant warfare closer home, that you are vitally interested in. It is the warfare of disease against your health, a struggle that is always going on, and one for which you must always keep your system prepared.

And your blood supply is the fortress upon which you must depend. If it is kept pure and free from any weakening influence, the germs of disease cannot find lodgment, but are promptly expelled, and good health is assured. But you should take no chances with this mainstay of defense. Impurities are liable to creep into your blood and so weaken your system that it is unable to resist even the most ordinary ailments. This means the beginning of the attack which will result in the undermining of your health.

S. S. S., the world's most renowned blood remedy, will tend to keep the blood absolutely pure and free of impurities. This great old remedy, which has been in constant use for more than fifty years, keeps the system in perfect condition by tending to purify the blood and cleansing it thoroughly. # CLERK ROBS GUESTS OF THOUSANDS

SAN FRANCISCO, March 5.—When the name of Carl Muebach of Kansas City was added to his list of names at the Pazo Robles Hotel, clerk, quit posing as an employee, robbed the hotel safe and fled. This is the report made to the police here by Dr. G. W. Tape, manager of the Pazo Robles hotel.

A card index of guests at the hotel who were considered well-to-do enough to rob was found in Muebach's room.

Muebach had $7000 worth of jewelry and $2000 in currency in the hotel safe. The total amount of Muebach's haul is not known.

M'ADOO WOULD CUT U. S. TAXES

WASHINGTON, March 5.—An immediate billion-dollar reduction in Federal taxes was suggested in a statement issued here by William C. McAdoo, former Secretary of the Treasury. The present tax burden is too great, he said, and is "having an injurious effect on business."

McAdoo proposed that collection of a tax to establish a sinking fund for retirement of the war debt, which was recommended by former Secretary Glass to begin with the fiscal year 1920. This might be postponed for two years and that the deferred payments of European interest be funded until Europe is in position to pay its interest charges.

"Under the laws of the nation as embodied in future congressional legislation," said McAdoo, "should realize the utmost economy in expenditure and might well fund in long time bonds $1,000,000,000 per annum for two years of the amount now raised by taxation."

Continuing, he said:

PEACE IN 1917 HOLLWEG PLAN

ROME, March 5.—That Germany was ready to make concessions on Alsace-Lorraine in 1917 as a means of achieving peace, was the substance of a semi-official statement made by the Vatican relative to conversations occurring at that time between the papal nuncio, Monsignor Pacelli, and the German chancellor, Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg.

The chancellor has recently alluded in German newspapers to the conversations and the Vatican statement gives more detailed information.

Concerning the exchange in reference to Alsace-Lorraine, the statement says Monsignor Pacelli asked Bethmann-Hollweg's answer is given as follows:

"If France is ready to negotiate, peace will not be wrecked on that point. Under the form of a reciprocal ratification of frontiers it will be easy to find the way to an accord."

The early part of the statement indicates that the negotiations were interrupted and that Monsignor Pacelli during the first half of 1917, was entrusted to present to the Kaiser an autographed letter from the Pope, in which the pontiff limited himself to recommending warmly peace in such a manner as circumstances at the moment suggested."

MY HEART and MY HUSBAND

by ADELE GARRISON

"The bottle of library paste had just been used, I could plainly see that, and the scissors were still sticky."

"What did Dicky mean to do about the Bayview festivities?"

"This was the question that hovered above me as might, a pestilent mosquito during my toilet of the morning following my unfortunate attempt to write Dicky's speech. I tubbed and dressed and arranged my hair to the annoying accompaniment of his buzzing. And when finally, attired in my new suit, and with even my new hat adjusted to the correct angle, I descended the stairs, I felt my knees trembling, so nervous, uncertain was I of Dicky's intentions."

But Dicky is always full of surprises, and it was a most unexpected angle of behavior which I met as I entered the dining room. He sprang up, pretended to stagger, and put his hands to his eyes as if overcome by my sartorial splendor.

"My word!" he exclaimed with one of the mannerisms brought back from the other side. "Just cast your eyes upon this vision, will you?"

He turned with hand outstretched toward my father and his mother already seated at the breakfast table. "I know whether we ought to turn loose upon an unsuspecting world do you dad?"

My father's eyes twinkled. "Perhaps you'd better tag her before she leaves," he said, smiling longingly at me.

My mother-in-law stiffened as she always does when Dicky praises my appearance. This attitude of hers used to grieve and anger me, now I realize not only that it is distinctly subconscious on her part, but that in her heart she is as proud of my presenting a good appearance as is Dicky. But she would die before she'd admit it.

"STRUCK 12 ON THAT RIG."

"May I remind you that the cereal is getting cold?" she said icily.

"Margaret is late now," her tone expressed the belief that I had purposely tarried upstairs. "We did not wait for you," she went on, to me, "for, as you know, I am always faint until I get my morning coffee."

"Of course," I said, pleasantly slipping out of the coat of my suit and into the chair which Dicky was holding for me with exaggerated courtesy. My mental thermometer had leaped from sub-normal to fever heat at my husband's unexpected friendliness. Yet there was a glint of mockery in his eyes which made me uneasy as I think, perhaps he intended it to do.

"You sure struck twelve on that rig, old girl," he said as I settled to my grapefruit. "It suits you, doesn't it?"

"Lut went with you, didn't she?" I thought I detected her fine Italian hand.

"She has wonderful judgment. I acquiesced heartily, but I couldn't help flushing at the implication that would have been unable to select a modest costume without Lillian's help. The mocking glint in Dicky's eyes deepened. I realized that for some reason or other he was deliberately teasing me, and I was so sure she would not have the satisfaction of knowing either that she had succeeded or that I guessed his intention.

DICKY REFUSES TO GO ALONE.

"I say, Dicky," he said, after an interval devoted to haughty delicious muffins and parsley omelet. "Are you coming here to go with me to that shindig today?"

I thrilled with joyous surprise. So he meant to go after all. But my question troubled me.

"Why, I couldn't possibly do that, dear, unless I took a taxi both ways. If I could get one at that hour, and even then I wouldn't have a minute for lunch."

"All right," he said with exaggerated indifference. "But if you think I'm going to trek over there by myself, and hang around the entrance sitting on my hind legs and begging pretty, 'Please I'm Misses Gramham's husband. Will some kind person tell me where to find her,' you've got another guess coming that's all."

A high-pitched giggle started us. Katie, her face red with the effort to suppress her laughter turned and bolted to the kitchen, a crash of china accompanying her. She evidently had found it impossible to carry a cup of coffee and suppress her merriment at the same time.

"I hope you're satisfied, Richard?" My mother-in-law's look and tone were intended to crush her son to earth. "That cup is one of a set."

SONGS of FRANK L. STANTON

The Travelers

Travelers on the road so weary. Whistle off the worry. Time is going fast. What's the use to hurry? Swift or slow, you'll make the race. Some day, to the Resting Place.

In the road you journey o'er. Raise the dust that's blinding. But the travelers gone before. They are never minding. If again they bore the load. Would they hurry on the road.

Count no tears, nor harbor fears. This side sleep, or Heaven; Struggle for all the headless years. In the grate that's given. Swift or slow, you'll make the race. Some day, to the Resting Place.

HOMELY COUNSEL. Rise up, son, and set your stakes. If you would cop the clover. Only good times a filler makes. Are times to hooray over.

A TEST BY THE WAYSIDE. Dar's so much light in de world. ef you don't watch out it'll set you on fire befo' you kin to burn. (Copyright by the OAKLAND TRIBUNE)

RECIPES by DELMONICO'S CHEF

Oyster Cocktail

Take enough small selected raw oysters open and place a few in a cup or glass with the liquor—season with salt, pepper, a teaspoonful of tomato catsup, a few drops of lemon juice or a little tarragon vinegar. A drop of Tabasco sauce. Little oyster crabs are equally delicious served in the same manner.

which is now closed stock and cannot be replaced. Besides, the language you use is positively disgusting and especially demoralizing to an infant like Katie. As for the contention which I imagine you are making—though your meaning is almost obscured by your absurd language—your disinclination to go to the school unaccompanied is understandable. The absolute dullness of both you and Margaret is inexplicable. Is there no decent restaurant or inn in Bayview where Margaret could meet you for lunch and then return to the school with you?"

"Police! Help! I'm sinking! Will nobody throw me a rope?"

Dicky piped the words in a high falsetto, throwing up his hands in a ludicrous pretense of being o'erboard. "Stop that nonsense at once! I never permitted such conduct from you while you were a child and I shall certainly not begin the practice now!" (Continued Tomorrow)

"OH, LET'S DON'T"

People With Thin, Pale Blood
Are Listless and Want to Do Little

MORE RED-BLOOD CELLS
NEEDED

Take Pepto-Mangan, Famous Tonic, and Say "Let's Go,"
Instead of "Let's Don't"

When normally healthy, ambitious people begin to lack energy and tire easily—when they are quickly discourage and low in vitality, it usually means their blood has grown weak.

Such people are called anemic, or "run-down." Build up the blood and you build up the health and spirits. Pepto-Mangan is a pleasant-tasting red blood builder and it contains exactly the elements which poor, pale blood needs to become rich, red blood.

Red blood means rosy cheeks,
bright eyes, a clear brain, a firm step. Pepto-Mangan has placed thousands of people who needed building up in the full-blooded, en-ergic, vigorous class. It changes the "let's don't" attitude to a "let's go" attitude. Recommended by

School Foremen Cleared; New Salary Probe Begins

At the conclusion of a lengthy hearing before the board of education last night, the three foremen in the school department, H. G. Win-ham, foreman carpenter; J. F. Kelley, foreman plumber; and H. D.
Duncan, foreman electrician, were exonerated of charges that they had accepted payment for overtime and vacation while working for the department on a per diem basis.

While clearing the books of the board of the long-standing investigation of the foremen, the hearing resulted in catapulting the board into still another investigation as the result of testimony taken from Dan W. Pratt, former secretary and business manager.

After testifying that the payment of the foremen in apparent violation of the rules of the civil service board and the school board was done at his instigation as the result of a "gentlemen's agreement" of the board members, Pratt declared that the present board is countenancing further violation of the civil service board rules in permitting four employees to draw two salaries from the city.

The four mentioned by Pratt are
A. C. Sneed, secretary to Superintendent of Schools Fred M. Hunter; Accountant J. W. Edgemond, payroll clerk; H. E. Gilkey and Purchasing Agent Donald Rice, all of whom, Pratt claimed, are holding two positions.

After the passage of a resolution declaring the three foremen guilty of no wrongdoing, the board took cognizance of Pratt's charges by adopting a motion of Director J.
Loran Pease calling upon President
Floyd Gray and Business Manager
Lloyd D. Barzee for an investigation and report on the assertion.

In a statement after adjournment of the hearing Barzee declared that the positions held by the four employees referred to in addition to their board positions are purely pedagogical ones and that none of the employees mentioned are strictly under civil service jurisdiction.

Following the reading of a resolution offered by Commissioner W.
H. Edwards, an ex-officio member of the board, clearing the foremen after a "full and impartial hearing," the meeting developed into a sharp clash when Director Campbell charged that the probe had been a farce and was not conducted im-partially.

Police Say Woman Committed Suicide

Police investigation and testimony of friends and relatives has led to the conclusion that Mrs. M. E.
Heck's death was self-inflicted, prompted by ill health. She was 67 years old and lived at 5224 Chabot road.

Mrs. Heck had been sick for several months, and had recently returned from a sanitarium. She was being cared for by Mrs. E. G. Hart,
a friend. Mrs. Hart left the room woman dead and a revolver lying near her.

Peru to Maintain Her Rights to Land Taken

LIMA, Peru, March 5.—The Peruvian Senate adopted a resolution declaring "Peru will maintain indisputably her rights to territories taken from her by Chile."

France Thinks Allies' Plan Plays Into Hands of Enemy

By HENRY WOOD.
United Press Staff Correspondent.

PARIS, March 5.—The French government takes the position that the European economy policy as agreed to by Premier Lloyd George and Nitti will lead to the rehabilitation of Germany's industries more quickly than France's, according to an authoritative statement today. The government's position may be outlined as follows:

Germany's industries were little affected by the war because Germany territory was not invaded extensively. Hence German manufacturing has a much easier problem than do the French, for the French assert France's greatest industrial cities were laid waste and her factories wrecked with typical Teuton thoroughness.

Should the proposed economic policy be put into effect a rapid rise in the value of the German mark is sure to follow, because German industry will come rapidly back toward normal. The French franc, on the other hand, cannot increase in value until France has rebuilt her devastated areas and has her factories again in operation.

As to Russia, the French feel that the policy of the allied premiers show a lack of knowledge of the real situation. Before Russian commerce with outside nations can be developed to any extent, the French hold, Russian railways must be rebuilt. This, the French assert, will require at least one billion francs and six months' time. And further, the French do not believe Russia has extensive stocks of cereals and raw materials to supply the other countries. Russia, they point out, has not definitely promised that she can supply food stocks in any quantity. The Soviet, they say, have promised that Russia needs manufactured goods, particularly farm machinery, and that they stand ready to pay for these products in gold and precious stones, not in food stocks.

If the allies conclude peace with the Soviet government and prepare for full resumption of trade relations, they declared, France, Italy and Great Britain will find themselves with another big consumer on their hands, while that consumer will not be able immediately at least to supply those goods which the allies most need.

DANGER SEEN

MOTHER CLAIMS ABANDONED GIRL

UREANA, Ohio, March 5.—"What fight has mother to claim a child after having abandoned it in its infancy and left it in the care of others for nine years, the child having grown up to know its foster parents as father and mother?"

This question has been put up to Probate Judge Gibbs.

After having abandoned her illegitimate child when it was six weeks old, giving it into custody of Mr. and Mrs. William Houdyshell, habeas corpus proceedings have been instituted by the child's mother, Mrs. Hilda Markin, claiming the nine-year-old child, Margaret Louise, and preventing Houdyshell from legally adopting it, following the death of Mrs. Houdyshell recently.

Houdyshell has also instituted proceedings before Judge Gibbs seeking legal adoption of the child.

BAN IS LIFTED.
HOLLISTER, March 5.—The ban on public assemblies, such as at dances, theaters, churches and schools was lifted today as a result of the disappearance of influenza in epidemic form. The decision to lift the ban was made at the meeting of the county and city health boards last evening.

WILL FIGHT ABANDONING PASS ROAD

GILROY, March 5.—The proposed abandonment by the highway commission of three miles of the old Pacific coast pass road, a relic of a new road across one of the most valuable dairy ranches in the county to save five-eighths of a mile in distance, will not be carried out without vigorous opposition of the board of supervisors of this county.

Supervisor Henry Hecker of Gilroy, in whose district the change of route is proposed by the highway commission, declared today when informed of the action for abandonment that the people of the entire district are against any such move and would fight it. They had an inkling of the proposed change, he stated, when it was noticed that the preliminary survey left the old roadway cut across the ranch in question.

ENGLAND WOULD MAKE U. S. GOODS

LONDON, March 5.—A new company has been formed to arrange the manufacture of American goods in Great Britain for British and empire markets. It is stated by the American Chamber of Commerce in London.

With the growth of the movement for preferential tariffs and other national arrangements among the countries making up the British Empire, many American manufacturers already have considered it desirable to establish plants in Canada. The new company is working, however, on the presumption that the advantages of a factory in Great Britain are greater.

The American chamber understands that the new company will encourage and assist American manufacturers of successful products to establish plants in Great Britain, but where the American manufacturer is not interested in doing so, it is willing to sell his rights to the new company, which will undertake to find British or French manufacturers who will take over these rights. Similarly, it will introduce into America goods which have proved successful in Great Britain or France.

The new company is understood to have received the sanction of the manufacturers on both sides of the Atlantic, who are anxious to have their goods produced in the other country. The function of the new company is to bring such manufacturers together, its profits arising out of a percentage of the royalty of a lump sum payable for the patent or the process.

Three Convicted of Defrauding Uncle Sam

DETROIT, Mich., March 5.—After a trial lasting three months a jury late last night returned verdicts against Grant Hugh Browne, New York sportsman; Samuel Henry, former major in the United States army; and Soterious Nicholson, former United States army captain, on charges of conspiracy to defraud the government.

The government charged that during May, 1919, Browne and others conspired with Waterbury and a lieutenant named Henry to purchase quantities of army salvage material at a price which would net hundreds of thousands of dollars profit to the conspirators.

Woman Slated for Democrats' 'Big Four'

ALBANY, N. Y., March 5.—It is almost certain that the "Big Four" delegation of the Democrats of New York state will include a woman, and that woman will also be included as an alternate when the unofficial Democratic convention suggests the state representation to the national convention next week.

Democratic officials tonight had practically decided that when the unofficial convention is called to order next Thursday noon, the women shall be conceded these two positions.

The personnel of the "Big Four" had not yet been determined, but indications were that Governor Smith would head the committee and that the other representatives from New York city would be Miss Elizabeth Marbury.

Maxine Gorky Scores Bolshevism's Failure

STOCKHOLM, March 5.—Bitter disappointment with Bolshevism is expressed in an article recently published by Maxine Gorky, the Russian radical, according to the Tidningen of this city.

"The revolution has not been followed by any spiritual revival," the article is said to declare, "and has proved itself unable to make men more honest. Men in power now are just as brutal as those in authority under the imperial regime and send as many men to prison. Bolshevik leaders driven by ambition, are performing experiments upon living people, especially the working classes."

Mexican Military Academy Reopened

EL PASO, Texas, March 5.—Cadets of the military school of Chapultepec, drawn up on the drill field of Mexico's West Point, solemnly swore allegiance to the flag of Mexico, held aloft by President Venustiano Carranza, as part of the ceremonies in honor of the opening of the institution, held in Mexico City recently, according to Excelsior. The school had been closed for ten years.

The oath of allegiance was administered as the cannon of the citadel fired a salute of twenty-one guns in honor of the anniversary of the fall of the city of Mexico in 1857 and of 1917, which occurred the same day.

REGISTRATION CLOSES
SANTA CLARA, March 5.—Registration for the annual town election, which will be held April 5, closes today. Candidates for the various offices must file their petitions by March 15. George Bray filed his nomination petition for trustee today.

"Get-Rich-Quick" Schemes Being Prosecuted by Club

NEW YORK, March 5.—Ingenious use of advertising schemes by "get-rich-quick" men are being run down by the national vigilance committee of the Associated Advertisers Clubs of the World, which keeps a corps of men at this work almost constantly.

Richard H. Lee, special counsel of the committee, who supervises the work, tells many stories of confidence men and the methods used to combat and convict them.

One man, he says, formed a league of automobile users. The league issued a price list of accessories, all quoted less than possible for the manufacturer to make them. When a member ordered an article, it was substituted and a circular letter explained that because of the great demand, the factory was behind in its orders. In some cases the substitution was attributed to the ignorance of the object desired. The substitute was a cheap affair, made for the head of the league, but the member was satisfied, temporarily at least, by the explanation that while its price was higher than that ordered, the league would sell it to him for the same sum.

This man built up a good reputation by means of "preferred" customers, whom Lee describes as "plants" who innocently furthered the designs of the swindler. A group of these auto dealers, established in each town where the league did business.

SURGEON IS DUPE.
As an illustration, Lee cites the case of one of the most prominent surgeons in an Ohio city who was lured to join the league. He bought a tire, which an agent obtained from a local dealer at the usual retail price, and then held until the proper time had elapsed for shipment from headquarters. The doctor was delighted. In a few days the agent dropped around to see him and asked how the tire was holding up. On inspection the agent found an irregular flaw and insisted upon replacing the tire with a new one—also bought at the usual retail price. He left the supposedly defective tire, saying that the doctor could use it as a spare, and refused further payment.

"If you really feel so grateful, doctor," he said, "write the Old Man a letter about it and tell him how you feel."

The letter was used for advertising purposes.

Not one, but many companies, brought suit against the league, with success. The defendant would put his "preferred" customers, all men of unquestioned reputation, on the stand, and the case would be dismissed.

This man reduced circular letter writing to a science. He dictated a set of circular letters answering every conceivable sort of question pertaining to his business, and then and then dismissed the greater part of his clerical force.

INGENUOUS LETTERS.
Lee told one amusing result. A customer complained that a drip pen was a chibber. The inexperienced girl who answered the complaint looked up "goods" in the index and followed it down until she found the word "lost." She then sent the customer a letter saying that the league always took the greatest care to see that there was no shortage in shipments, and if the customer "would shake up the excelsior in the bottom of the box," he undoubtedly would find the missing object.

After a year's fight, the vigilance committee in the service of the bank, without first taking the matter up with the chief clerk.

Grain and Livestock Price Slumps Noted

CHICAGO, March 5.—Declines in grain, produce and livestock quotations were recorded on the Chicago markets for the week ending today. The general trend of the market all week was downward, although there were several spasmodic increases which brought the close for the week only slightly under last week's quotations.

Main factors in the decline of both grain and livestock was lack of export demand and general improvement in crop and weather conditions.

"Jubilo" Hero in a New Role, Comes to the American Sunday

The face all Oakland has been waiting for: WILL ROGERS, famous "Jubilo" star in "Water, Water Everywhere," which is to be featured at the American theater next week.

Alice Joyce in "Slaves of Pride," Is Second Feature of Double Bill; Beautiful Gowns Displayed

Will Rogers, the screen's latest star, comes to the American Theater in his new play, "Water, Water Everywhere." Starting next Sunday, to those who saw "Jubilo," little need be said about Will Rogers, his style and his personality. As Bill, a cowboy and a general good-fellow, he turns Hell's Bells Saloon into a soda fountain "manned" by a city beauty chorus. Then the fun begins and continues until he has changed the entire routine of the town. "Water, Water Everywhere" is a typical Rogers picture, full of fun. Alice Joyce in "Slaves of Pride," a society drama of an unusual love, is the second feature. Miss Joyce, with style and her personality, displays some beautiful gowns. The performances tonight, tomorrow and tomorrow night, close the engagement of "The Stage" and Emerson Hough's remarkable human story—Advertisement.

ALIMONY OR JAIL, HUSBAND IS TOLD

Kaliph T. McAdams, former inspector at the Moore shipyards, who was divorced by Mrs. Myrtle L. McAdams, 22 years ago, is suing E. S. L. Bush, against whom she has an alienation suit pending for $10,000 in damages, was today threatened with jail sentence by Judge A. F. Stone. Sure unless he paid his former wife some alimony.

Mrs. McAdams declared she needs money for the care of her son, Russell, 12 years old, and that her counsel offered to have the decree modified to $50 a month in stead of $75.

Stone asked Mrs. McAdams if she wanted her husband put in jail now. She said she did not, so the case was continued to the 10th inst. when she must show good. Mrs. McAdams alienation suit against Mrs. Bush, whom she claims to have found in the company of her husband at a hotel, is set for trial before Judge Stone.

POISON MENACE FROM OLIVES IS REPORTED OVER

SAN FRANCISCO, March 5.—Investigation of olive and vegetable oil poisoning cases in California has been delayed to a point that it may safely be said that the situation is controlled, Dr. George E. Ebricht, president of the State Board of Health, announced here today following a meeting of university, State and federal experts and representatives of olive interests yesterday to discuss the situation.

"The oil poisoning investigation cannot be announced at this time because it has not been completed," Dr. Ebricht said. "It will be two months or more before the results will be tangible result, but in the meantime, we are taking every possible precaution. In co-operation with the olive interests, we are withdrawing large chase of the brands which remain on sale."

Oakland Fratricide

SAN JOSE, March 5.—A move to obtain freedom from John L. Dpaka pronounced criminally insane, was instituted here today by his aged mother, Mrs. Thomas Doak of Oakland, who brought habeas corpus proceedings in the superior court.

Dpaka, 44, a dentist, killed his brother at Los Angeles in 1912.

In Oakland later a jury found him insane after he committed an assault on E. B. Steiner with intent to kill.

Mrs. Doak, who lives on Thirty-third street, Oakland, is 70 years old. She declares her son is sincere. He is one of thirteen children.

Water Company Claims Untrue, Cornish Says

BERKELEY, March 5.—City Attorney Frank V. Cornish today refutes the statement of Eastbay Water Company engineers that the San Pablo dam has an abundance of water. He said that, according to a recent investigation, the San Pablo dam is fed by a stream of water only a few yards wide and two inches deep. He says that the supply of water the company claims to have is exaggerated.

FRIDAY, MARCH 5, 1920.

Virginia was rather counted on, but the endorsing motion was lost in the upper body of the legislature by one vote. All of the strictly Southern States have rejected the amendment.

All of the Western States whose legislatures have been in session since the matter has been open have approved it, and always by majorities that leave no question of public sentiment. The Governor of Washington has now called an extra session principally to act on the suffrage question. There can be no doubt as to the result.

If suffrage is defeated as a national issue it will be by those older States which are crystallized in the more ancient view of man's dominancy and woman's subordinate sphere.

DRUNKS ACCORDING TO LAW.

If each State is allowed to fix the alcoholic content of its beverages and to define as non-intoxicating all liquors within that limit the quality of the nation may be increased in unlooked for ways.

New Jersey has decreed that three and one-half percent of alcohol in beer is not intoxicating and there is a bill to be introduced in New York to fix the percentage necessary before legal inebriation at six. It would appear, then, that a man might drink heartily of the New York six percent beer and start home sober. Once, however, he emerged from the other end of the Hudson tubes in Hoboken or Jersey City, his content would be against the law and he would be looked upon as a man who had drunk two and a half percent more alcohol than was good for him.

Conversely there will be exerted a great sobering effect on the Jerseyite who drinks too deeply of his three percent when he crosses the river into Manhattan where it will take six percent to produce the statutory jag. Of course New York has not passed its six percent law and the content is probably set at too high a figure to secure passage without amendment.

Wisconsin has declared for two and one-half percent "kick." It now remains for the other States to fix their percentages at various figures so that the drinking man cannot cross a State line without experiencing a thrill at the peculiar and varied possibilities.

We must now take account of a new conscience in commercialism. It has always been considered ethical for the salesman to exercise all his art to promote sales. There have been certain bounds that could not be crossed if a reputation for what is termed "square dealing" was to be maintained; but in the main, the customer was supposed to know what he was about. But here comes a report that Omaha grocers have taken the ethical ground of advising customers to buy cheap goods. "When customers ask for high priced articles, the grocer will advise cheaper articles which will serve the same purpose." This is to be done to assist in reducing the high cost of living. Whether it will operate in this direction is a matter in some danger of being lost sight of in the absorption of the mind over the spectacular reversal of mercantile methods here presented; also because of the mighty commercial halo that would seem to be hovering over the chief Nebraska city.

Though the Hungarians call their new ruler a regent, it is expected that at the psychological moment he will emerge wearing a crown and bearing grandiloquent titles. The Hungarians may scrap over their emperors and potentates—history shows that they generally have—but they feel the want of a throne as soon as the one they have is toppled. They have started what may be a dynasty with an admiral, and what makes their proceeding look like an imperial move is that they have fixed the regent's salary at $607,800 a year. No patriot who simply wanted to help out would require or expect such a wage as that.

Britain's bill for rum, says Lord Curzon, is staggering. But it still has the right to stagger.

THE TURK IN EUROPE.

Allied diplomacy and statecraft cannot be commiserated on the subject of the Turkish situation. It is a matter of the highest importance. The fact that the Turk is to be permitted to remain in Constantinople has perplexed the Christian world. A few months ago everybody was in a hurry to get him out of Europe. But now he is being held in place. What has happened to reverse this implied decision? In India, fear of Muslim movement and insurgency, in the Turkish and Arab colonies, the largely inhabited by Mohammedans—this is the usual given. There are, however, will informed students of the eastern problem who assert that the Turk devotion to the Turkish empire is greater, unimpaired. Lord Robert Cecil and Viscount Bryce are among the outspoken critics of the pro-Turk decision. It is suspected by many that the old conflicts of the balance of power and the old jealousies and rivalries account for the astrophine surrender to the Turk. International control of Constantinople has been rejected because of the supposed purpose of it, of forming an international commission that would work in harmony and govern a great city in common in the interest of the people living there and dealing with a vast hinterland and with distant commercial centers.

Had the United States signified its willingness to take a mandate for Constantinople, the situation would have been different, perhaps, and the apprehension of Muslim rebellion against the humiliation of the Turk might have been removed. However, the necessity for this country of a Turkish mandate could not have been considered during the Washington controversy over the German peace treaty and the league of nations covenant, even if such a thing could ever be possible in view of the American reluctance to plunge into the unknown and invite such grave complications as forcing Turkey might involve. The allied diplomats therefore seemed to find it necessary to choose between the internationalization of Constantinople and the perpetuation of Turkish rule.

The worst feature of the affair is that, even if the covenant of the League of Nations is revised and liberalized and a thoroughly satisfactory league is organized, it will be difficult to reverse the decision as to Constantinople, for Mohammedans all over the world have been informed of it—with a precipitancy that will hardly bear investigation—and are supposedly rejoicing over this recognition of the prestige of their caliph.

NOTES and COMMENT

An aviator predicts that it will soon be possible to start from Chicago in the afternoon and land in Cuba the next day. That would be one way, but it would fetch up the price of drinks. Of course it is well known what all such calculations have reference to.

In saying that small packing houses will be more advantageous to consumers, it must be assumed that they will be more amenable to the law of course they will not be able to sell as cheaply. Corporations, big or little, generally do as well as they have to.

The home grown representation of the farmer, in a battered straw hat, one suspender, chewing a straw and looking up at the rain with a smile, is appearing with great frequency, notwithstanding that he now owns an automobile, and in appearance is a twin of the banker.

The wet issue is looming big in the Democratic horizon. A situation is being created that will afford much gaily to the nation, whatever else it may do. Governor Edwards, backed by Tammany, and William Jennings Bryan are training for the grab, and some scores besides that over booze will perhaps be etched up.

A fashion item from Chicago says that "spring skirt styles are going to be free-for-all, catch-as-catch-can, with the field wide open." After this, still persists. Just what are the spring skirt styles to be like?

The postage stamp is such an old story that it is now actively being seen that it will be a surprise to learn that the seventy-third anniversary of its first appearance occurred on Wednesday. In the beginning it was not made to adhere in the manner that is now the fashion. Each person, before he could post a letter, had to manipulate a pot of glue. The world has moved so fast that such anniversary have not received the attention that their importance may warrant.

The Dutch refuse to deliver Willem III, may become a commonplace. It is the one to the effort that they have taken Holland. It certainly states a more recent situation, and has been repeated several times.

HEALTH and HAPPINESS

Cataract—What It Is, and How It May Be Remedied

By DR. LEONARD E. HENNINGSEN
(Johns Hopkins University)

There are cataracts and cataracts. Whether the one of your eye received its name from the cloudy opaque mists and vapors of the Niagara kind or not, I cannot say. The soundest cataract exerting on scenic nature its unwearied power with fancies of dancing Naiads in the dewy meads, spouting thick white splashes of blindness, reminds the oculist who views a white, snowy spot in the pupils of a patient's eye of a ghost of lost vision.

The ailment of the human eye, which you know as a cataract, is an opaque, non-transparent, white area in the living crystal of the eye, called the lens. The lens is like a large dewdrop crystal of the old time glass chandelier. Only it is not quartz or common glass, but life-fell, a lens alight.

The rays or particles of light from the sun, a candle, a gas light or any illuminant which enter the eye through its peep hole of a pupil must pass through the crystal-pure, transparent lens. Thus it is focused on the movie screen of the eye, the retina. The retina is the living screen which receives the motion picture of life. It hangs as a curtain on the inner back wall of the eyeball.

The lens or crystal, when injured, inflamed, infected or impure becomes opaque, opal-like, misty or snowy white. This condition is called a cataract. Its name harks back to ancient Greece, and means a portcullis or trapdoor let down from above as mediaeval squires did to enter or leave their strongholds. The Greeks perhaps considered a cataract to be a veil or blind pulled down behind the pupil.

The lens may be misty and opaque itself. This is called a "lenticular cataract." When the opacity may be in the transparent cover or capsule of the lens it is then called a "capsular cataract."

Cataracts may begin with the complaint of a "film" before the eyes, or probably a little dimness of vision. The sight is complained of as blurred. The victim wipes his spectacles, speaks of specks before the eyes, and sees double or multiple effects.

Cataracts cannot be made to clear up without an operation. The treatment, in truth, is surgical.

The oculist surgeon waits until the cataract is "ripe"—fully opaque. Then he makes a window slit in the transparent cornea, and the thickened, useless lens pops out. Thus many "miracles" of how the blind are restored to sight are explained. Many oculists nowadays extract the lens without the delay of "ripening." This saves the victim much loss of time, trouble, vision and money.

Finally, due to inflammation, certain misty, opaque, whitish spots appear on the eyeballs of a new-born child. These opacities cannot be cured easily, but they can always be prevented if each new-born babe receives a one per cent silver solution in its eyes at birth.

OUIJA BOARD VICTIMS

Some such conclusion as that furnished at El Cerrito to the ouija board craze that has been apparent for the last six months, was to be expected. The phenomena of self-hypnosis and of sub-conscious mental activity are as dangerous in some hands as would be gun cotton and dynamite. Because of this silly trumpery, the varnished and nimble "wee-gee," eight persons, have been held for examination, three homes are in danger of being disrupted and the wondering attention of a busy country is directed, for a day, at the credulity that was here displayed.

Before one cries to scorn the simple folk who crowded about the ouija board through the hours of night and day, who burned their clothes, money and jewelry in response to what they believed its commands, and who assuaged the wrath of "spirits" by clipping tight the locks of children, it is well to take stock of the examples that have been offered.

The craze for cheap and easy "conversations" with the spirits has not been confined to that circle in which the Bottinis and Moros of El Cerrito move. Backed by such vouchers as Sir Oliver Lodge and Sir Arthur Conan Doyle it has swept the country and shoggy and social butterfly have been sisters in seance, dupes of something that needs must be supernatural because it is beyond their understanding.

When reputable publishers issue books avowedly written by the spirits of departed authors and when educated persons foster lectures devoted to the glorification of ouija, there can be no sneers toward El Cerrito.

Upon this even those spiritualist friends of the ouija are agreed: it is a dangerous toy in the hands of any person not well balanced. Yet they are turned out by the thousands, like hobby horses, and may be exchanged for a dollar by any one who is desirous of hypnotizing himself into the belief that they are the chosen medium through which the spirits of the departed send their foolish and deceptive messages to earth. The time for an end to the tolerance that has given the ouija a wide and claptrap popularity is long since passed.

A DEMAND FOR TRUTH.

Mrs. Douglas Robinson, sister of the late Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, former President, tells of a letter she received recently from a western woman, the mother of a soldier. This admirer of the Great American wrote:

"I try to follow the news in the papers, but I don't know what to believe now that Roosevelt is not here to tell us the truth."

Did any man, living or dead, ever receive a more splendid tribute? Was there ever offered a finer example of the "truth" of the righteous man? There is another point worth noting—surviving all the seeming love of thrills and theatrics there is in the heart of the people, typified by this western woman, in innate love for the truth.

In the days of his political campaigns there were many partisans against Roosevelt. They fought him and saw nothing good in him. But as the days and years went on Roosevelt grew in the affections of the people. His readiness and aptitude in speaking on important public questions, his keen vision and correct measuring made him the oracle of Americans who love their country. They waited, some unconsciously and others ashamed to confess it, for the word of the great critic. They knew he could be depended upon to tear away the mask of hypocrisy and expose falsehood in all its nakedness. Roosevelt knew the truth, and he feared no man.

Now a voice cries from the wilderness of doubt and sham and small knowledge that surround the government of the nation for a Roosevelt to tell the truth. It is an unhappy comment upon the character of the men in official life at present. Somebody ought to be clever enough and courageous enough to play politics as Roosevelt played it—to tell the people the truth. There is no other system half so effective.

WOMAN ON TRIAL FEARS EX-TRUSTY

Unrequited love of William Lafferty, formerly a trusty in the Martinez jail, for Mrs. Irene Johnson, alias Dorothy Nelson, on trial for the robbery of the home of Mrs. Manuel Brown, 448 Haight street, Alameda, was alleged this morning by Mrs. Johnson and her attorney when they appealed to Sheriff Frank Barnett to have deputy sheriffs detailed to protect her.

Mrs. Johnson said that Lafferty, who was detailed to carry food to her when she was in the Contra Costa county jail, had declared she would never go to San Quentin if convicted and she says she feared he would attack her guards and possibly injure her. Hattie White, jail matron, who, besides a deputy sheriff, accompanies the defendant to court daily, said Lafferty had been banging around the jail for a week and throwing pebbles at the window of her cell. Mrs. Johnson said Lafferty had shown an interest in her when she was awaiting trial at Martinez on the charge of assisting Bert Garret, recently sentenced to term in San Quentin, in holding up with a revolver Virgil Reed, photographer, in Richmond. She said she was nothing for the man, but was in desperate fear of him. She was acquitted of the hold-up charge. It was decided Lafferty cannot be arrested.

Mrs. Johnson's maiden name was Horgan as revealed today when her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Horgan of San Jose, testified that she was their daughter and had run away from home six years ago. They said they believed her mentally unbalanced.

Mrs. Johnson took the stand in her own behalf today. She said she told contradictory stories to the police in an endeavor to aid Garret. The latter was brought from San Quentin and late yesterday testified that she had nothing to do with the Brown robbery, saying he did it alone and gave Mrs. Brown's clothes to her. The case is expected to reach the jury late today.

Monthly Payments Sought for Pensioners

A move to provide for the monthly payment of pensioned members of the Fire Department was started this morning by the Health Club, an organization of firemen, in the form of a petition to Mayor John D. Hays, by William B. Smith, legal adviser of the club.

According to Smith, payment of pensioned members was made obligatory under the city charter last year. The request has been referred to the city attorney for investigation.

Steamer Service to East to Be Resumed

SAN FRANCISCO, March 5.—Pre-war steamer service between New York and the Pacific Coast will be resumed early in the month, according to a statement of the agent, F. A. Hume, of the San Francisco branch of the Western Union Telegraph and Cable Co., announced this afternoon. Arrangements have been completed, he said, whereby regular west-bound steamer service will be inaugurated by Panama to San Francisco, San Pedro, Portland and Puget Sound.

HAGAN AS COUNSEL IS CONTESTED

Summoned as defendants in the suit commenced in the Superior court by Norval W. Cook, municipal efficiency expert, to recover his salary for a month and a half, members of the City Council this morning failed to agree on a proposal that City Attorney H. L. Hagan act as legal adviser of the council in the suit.

The proposal was made by Commissioner W. H. Edwards, and protested by Commissioner W. J. Baccus and Mayor John L. Davis.

"How can Hagan represent us as defendants when he has already rendered an opinion in the case declaring Cook's claim valid?" asked Commissioner Baccus.

Hagan said that if the proposal should be carried out he would resign his position as city attorney. He said that the council had no right to demand that he act as legal adviser of the council in the suit.

Cook is suing for $300, representing his pay for the latter half of January and the month of February. The council claims he was held up by Auditor Harry G. Williams and the Civil Service Board to get their own attorneys. Mayor John L. Davis suggested that the case be laid over until Monday, which was done.

Many Are Trapped by Narcotics, Coret Says

Twenty thousand persons in San Francisco are addicted to the use of morphine, cocaine, opium and marihuana, big dealers are buying the drugs in Mexico in $50,000 and $60,000 lots for distribution to small "peddlers," and thousands of young men are using drugs as a liquor substitute, Inspector Emilie G. Coret of the California State Board of Pharmacy, declared today.

How pools that run into small fortunes are raised for smuggling the drug in from Mexico, how the drug is then sold to the little peddler who goes among workers and around pool halls to retail it at enormous prices to the addicts and how the State Board of Pharmacy has arrested 60 users and dealers in the past week to stamp out the traffic, is told by Coret.

Since Monday $2500 worth of morphine and cocaine and $5000 worth of marihuana, the Mexican "rock," were seized by the arrest of Peter Tognes on Fourth street; Frank Wong, on DuPont street; Rafael Chavez, of 635 Pacific street; and an architect, of 330 Broadway; Frank Cuneo, of Vendome Hotel; and Edward Smith, of the New York House, all in San Francisco, accused of being dealers.

Idle young men by the hundreds and scores of women are being started on the drug route by dealers who prowled around pool halls, dance halls and in plants where the rougher element is employed," declared Coret. "The effect of the drug is insidious. At first they fill the victim with rapture, but he soon comes to the condition where he must have his 'shot' before he can get up, and is miserable even when under the influence."

"Drugs manufactured in this country are too well supervised to permit any great traffic, except through crooked drug stores, and these are not so numerous."

"The man driving around in a big limousine or at a large hotel may be a drug addict or a peddler. Many men have gathered a fortune through the traffic in these drugs. They buy them in Mexico for a very low figure and sell them here for from $2 to $5 for a 'shot' no bigger than a good-sized dose of quinine."

"CLEAN-UP" WEEK NAMED BY COUNCIL

The housewives' spring house cleaning campaign this year is to be expanded into a gigantic offensive against dirt, rubbish and unsightly waste places, in which the entire city will be combated, under action taken by the City Council this morning on the recommendation of Commissioner of Public Health and Safety F. F. Morse.

After presentation of a communication outlining the need for a general clean-up Morse presented a resolution that was unanimously adopted designating the week beginning March 22 as "clean-up week." The offensive is intended to clean up all vacant lots, do away with the rubbish and waste materials, put new coats of paint on unsightly buildings and, in general, set the city in order.

"The co-operation of all civic and commercial bodies in the campaign is asked by Morse."

The first comic opera was written two centuries before Columbus discovered America.

SAVING PLANNED BY NEW CONCERN

Eliminating duplication of delivery service and accomplishing a saving in operation, the Central Shuey Creamery Company yesterday filed articles of incorporation with the county clerk, purposing to divide the overlapping territory heretofore served by an Oakland and Berkeley firm into two distinct districts. The new company is capitalized at $500,000. Its directors are J. M. Carr, J. J. O'Neill, E. H. Fox, R. A. Shuey and C. S. Shuey. The firm intends to erect large creameries in Oakland and to deal in milk, cream products of milk, butter, eggs, as well as farm and garden products.

By a merging of the delivery business the company expects to effect a saving which will keep the selling price normal. "If other creameries would follow our example and eliminate a duplication of service I believe there would be no necessity for a further raise in milk prices," J. J. O'Neill said yesterday.

The West Coast Sales Company incorporated in Alameda county yesterday with a capital stock of $50,000. The directors of the company are A. Schluter, Theo. Schluter, H. J. Swift, George Swift and Anna Swift. The firm proposes to distribute washing machines.

For the purpose of manufacturing and distributing non-intoxicating beverages, the Golden State Bottling Company yesterday filed articles of incorporation, the directors named being San Francisco men. They are Benjamin F. Steacy, Chancey Baldwin, Benjamin F. Steacy Jr., James W. Steacy and H. C. McKay. The capital stock is $50,000.

Marines were first established in Oakland as a nursery to man the fleet.

LEAGUE BRANCH FOR ALAMEDA CO.

Mrs. Robert Burdette, of Los Angeles, a trustee of Mills College, is inaugurating a campaign to form auxiliaries of the National League for Women Voters throughout California. Preliminary organization has already been perfected in San Francisco. Immediate steps will be taken to organize a branch in Alameda county.

According to Mrs. A. B. Pyke, a national figure in the association, which is the successor to the National Suffrage Association and a delegate from the twenty-second congressional district to the Democratic convention in San Francisco this summer, an attempt will be made by the league to bring influence to the framing of the platforms at both the Democratic and the Republican national conventions.

Resolutions which are being considered by the national group, of which Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt is president, include legislation referring to anti-high cost of living; right of women workers to organize trade unions and bargain collectively; wage payment on the basis of work done; establishment of a woman's bureau in the department of labor, with a woman director; Federal and State offices for women; a 44-hour week for women, with one day's rest in seven; prohibition of night work for women in factories; compulsory payment of a minimum wage and participation of the United States in an international labor conference to obtain world standardization of industry.

In the blue Can

Don't worry about the high price of jams, jellies and preserves. Serve Karo, the Great American Sweet. Buy it by the dozen cans. An important message. Read it!

AMONG the twenty odd million American Homes there is probably not a single one where Karo is not served in some manner—for breakfast, for dinner or for supper.

During these days of high prices, Karo has become another word for economy. Thousands of thoughtful housewives have learned that Blue Label Karo is not only a delicious spread for pancakes, but answers every purpose where a sweet is needed.

Instead of paying the present high prices for jams, jellies and preserves—serve Blue Label Karo on sliced bread, toast, pancakes or waffles.

Do as the wise cooks are now doing: Use Karo to stew dried fruit, prunes; use it for candied sweet potatoes, brown bread, muffins, coffee cake and puddings.

Karo Home-made Candy is the best for children. It is wholesome, easy to make, costs much less than store candy.

Mothers give children Blue Label Karo and sliced bread because it satisfies Nature's craving for sweets and takes the place of candy.

IMPORTANT

There never was such a demand for Blue Label Karo as today. Housewives everywhere are buying it by the dozen cans. Ask your grocer the price per dozen. For economy's sake buy it this way.

BLIZZARD OVER WEST SPREADING

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.
LEASTED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.
CHICAGO, March 5.—The cold wave which yesterday swept into the Middle West, preceded by rain and sleet and accompanied by snow, today spread eastward and southward, but left behind the gales and driving snow.

Weather forecasts indicated the Central, Western and Rocky Mountain States would have some relief from zero temperatures tomorrow, with fair weather but freezing temperatures reaching as far south as Mississippi and snow and rain in the upper Ohio valley and the Lake regions.

The storm struck Chicago six hours ahead of the time forecast by the weather bureau.

Kansas City, St. Louis, Omaha, Des Moines and St. Paul reported the storm had crippled wire communication and impeded street car service.

Officials of railroads operating in Western and Northern States announced crews with rotary snowblows had begun clearing tracks of drifts and it was probable trains would be run on schedules tomorrow.

"HANDCUFF KING" PICKS LOCK AND ESCAPES JAIL

LOS ANGELES, March 5.—Roy Dickerson, alias George Lynch, formerly vaudeville "handcuff king," charged with robbing the Phoenix Girard Bank of Phoenix, escaped from the city jail here during the night after picking the "burglar proof" lock on his cell door and climbing to the roof of the building through a ventilator shaft.

Using a piece of iron he had removed from his bed as a chisel, Dickerson pried loose several bricks around the small grating in the ventilator shaft, then crawled through the hole. Reached the roof of the building, he slid to the ground by means of a vent pipe. Dickerson's wife, Evelyn Dickerson, is charged with complicity in the Phoenix robbery and is under arrest here. She claims Dickerson has escaped from nearly 200 jails throughout the country.

In Media it was a reproach for a man to have less than seven wives.

HAVE RULE BILL SCOOPED BY PLUNKETT

BY INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE.
LEASSED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

DUBLIN, March 5.—An unconfirmed rumor was current today that the new home rule for Ireland may be scooped by the parliament because of the opposition of all political parties in Ireland. The bill is now under consideration in the House of Commons.

DUBLIN, March 5.—(By Associated Press.)—Sharp criticism of the new Irish home rule bill was expressed by Sir Horace Plunkett, chairman of the Dublin convention, at a "welcome home" dinner given in his honor here last night by the Irish Dominion League.

Plunkett, who has just returned from the United States and gave his impressions of the American attitude toward Ireland.

"Long before the war broke out, the world and the orderly progress, if not the survival of Western civilization, depends more on mutual understanding between the British commonwealth of free nations—a term I prefer to the British empire—and the great republic of the West. It is a matter of personal knowledge that from 1911 the Prussian government was organizing a German-Irish alliance in American politics with a view to the coming attack upon the world's freedom."

"I have not the least doubt that, supposing the Irish trouble had nothing to do with the beginning of the war, it was an important factor in delaying America's decisive participation in the struggle."

"In America I found more bitter and more honest criticism of the British empire than in all my forty years of observation. As usual, although due to many other causes, it was tangled up with the Irish trouble and was generally expressed in the most thorough and dependable, as well as the most agreeable, manner."

"Americans do not bother themselves with details. They want Ireland to have as large a measure of self-government as possible, to break its ties with the British empire, for which they in calm moments recognize they are almost as much concerned as the British."

"In my judgment America does not want Ireland to be an independent republic, but until the British government ceases to break its promises to Ireland the sentiment of America will be that the Irish people are justified in asking what they like."

Sir Horace criticized the home rule bill because it gave Ulster and a minority of not more than one-fifth of the Irish people a "virtual mandate" to govern the rest of the island without responsibility.

"Old Sports" Shy of Strange Faces Pool Room Betting Is Wary Business News Received Over Hidden Wires

Possibly the commonest sight in the Emeryville joints where they make books on the races is the overnight "dope sheet" which includes tips on the races and records of their past performances. No old timer thinks of tackling the days' game until he has looked over this mass of material. There is no particular difficulty in purchasing it. You walk up to the news stand on Broadway as if you have bought every day of your life. The reporter was told that, unless he assumed this "inside" attitude he might have difficulty in securing it.

There are seven new days run at the Juana and New Orleans, which makes fourteen races a day on which the gamblers at Emeryville may bet.

The dope sheets which give you the history of the various horses in the race are published daily in San Francisco. The dope sheet for Tuesday, March 5, gives the track slow. There are the tips, labeled "Mannie's Best Bets." Franklin and Goldcrest are his two best bets for that day.

"Mannie's fiver is 'Mannie.' Once having decided that the New Orleans races are the best to play the process of trying to pick the day's winners from the dope sheet and newspaper data is largely a matter of hunches. That "Tiger Rose," picked by a greenhorn to win, made second place did not mean that any great knowledge had been accumulated. The reporter played a "hunch." In fact the aforesaid Tiger Rose was not boosted as hard to beat or "silk stable." The horse was credited with working fast, from recent, good chances, but Arch Plotter, Barley Water and Grumbling had been all placed ahead of the horse that "happened" to make second place.

On the "dope" Tiger Rose ap-tones but did not bring any heart-warming reception. "Well, if you don't know any one here, I don't think I can admit you," the manager said, but without show of rancor or suspicion. "If you can get someone to identify you, all right."

The reply lacked finality, however, and the reporter returned to his seat to peruse the "best bets." Presently the manager returned, stood around for a minute and then made a motion with his head. The reporter followed—through the middle door. The dingy hallway was like that of a score of other such places. On the right was the "mysterious" door that led into the little card room on the first floor. On the left was a larger room, dark and dreary, looking in which suddenly loomed to view a "lookout," who subsided again.

The way led up a rickety wooden stairway, which was partially uncovered, at the top of which was a covered porch or balcony. The door that led into the building was not visible. Under the magic touch of the guide the door opened and the two went through into a room occupied by a large number of men.

How Money Is Laid on a Race

The matter of going quietly to the desk, behind which stood two men, with a telephone close at hand, and betting a big, shabby-looking fellow to throw three "iron men" on the table occupied a few exciting minutes. The manager, small and alert, was close beside the reporter and evidently greeted the suspicious glare of the gamblers with a reassuring glance as the money was thrown out with the instructions "Three on Tiger Rose to win."

"All right, kid," the manager words "Garner, Rose, Plotter" meant that Mack Garner had won, with Tiger Rose second and Arch Plotter third.

Every word counts in playing the races at the Emeryville bucket shop. Discretion is the greatest virtue. See nothing, say nothing, hear everything. Don't be too curious. Never ask a man how he played, what he intends to play or what he has won. Con-gradulations over winnings are taken in bad part. The poker principle of "silence" is in full force.

It is evident that the race track gambling game in Emeryville is intimately connected with similar operations in San Francisco, Oakland, Los Angeles, San Diego, and, of course, Tia Juana and New Orleans. At all of the California cities the game is played up stairs and in the rear of saloons and in cellars and other such secret places. The glory is departed from the "king of sports" in Emeryville as elsewhere. But the slings that once befouled it befalls it still.

PARTIES DO NOT BOSS PRIMARY

SACRAMENTO, March 5.—Voters at the California presidential preference primary election May 4 may choose their ballot at the polls regardless of party affiliation and made at the time of registration, according to a statement by J. M. Cremin, election expert in the office of Secretary of State Frank C. Jordan.

Cremin quoted from a statement by Attorney-General U. S. Webb and Lieutenant-Governor C. C. Young, author of the primary election act, and said his statement was intended to show that the law was a wide-spread belief that when a voter "declined to state" his party affiliations when registering he would be barred at the polls from using a party ballot.

Cremin quoted as follows from a digest of the election law compiled by the Secretary of State and Attorney-General: "The primary election an elector otherwise qualified to vote is entitled to vote the ticket of that political party the name of which he has placed on election written on the roster and declared as aforesaid, notwithstanding the fact his affidavit of registration contains the name of the same or a different political party or does not contain the name of any political party and notwithstanding the fact that when registering he failed or declined to state the name of a political party with which he intended to affiliate."

TROTSKY FOE EXECUTED FOR WAR ON CHIEF

LONDON, March 5.—Khrustaleff Nossar, chief organizer of the first Russian revolution, has been executed by order of the Soviet authorities because of his attitude toward the revolution. He was a ship of a name called "How Trotsky Sold Russia," according to a Moscow wireless, which says news of the execution was received from Kiev.

(Note.—Nossar was sentenced to exile in Siberia in January, 1906. He escaped in 1907 and was next heard of in September, 1917, when he proclaimed complete autonomy of the Pereyaslav district of Little Russia.)

The college on a six-acre tract the institution now owns on the Alameda, between San Jose and Santa Clara. This was the decision reached by the board of trustees in a meeting of the office of the Methodist Book Concern in San Francisco last night. While several applications, including Santa Clara, Turlock and Alameda, were made, the board yesterday by letter, Stockton was the only bidder for the institution having representatives present.

Skyscrapers Urged
by London Editor

LONDON, March 5.—"It is time that London grew up," declares the London Evening News, a new convert to the idea that it is time for London authorities to consider seriously whether taller buildings would not be an improvement on an ever-widening ring of suburbs. "Well built skyscraper flats and office buildings would be good for Londoners, and there is no reason why we should not be as happy in them as New Yorkers are in theirs," adds the paper.

ST. PAUL THEATER BURNED

FREE TRIP TO RUSSIA FOR ALL 'UNDESIRABLES'

WASHINGTON, March 5.—The Russian Soviet government today renewed its offer to take out of the country, without expense to the United States, all Russian citizens which this government deems undesirable. The renewed offer came in the form of a letter to government officials today from Charles Recht, of New York, an attorney for the Soviet government. It is Uncle Sam will give it clearance, place no restrictions upon its provisioning and guarantee it would not be hampered en route.

Careless Shampooing Spoils the Hair

Soap should be used very carefully, if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it. The best thing for steady use is Multisided coconut oil shampoo. It is pure and greaseless, and is better than anything else you can use. One or two spoonfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply rub into the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage. You can get Multisided coconut oil shampoo at any pharmacy. It's very cheap, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.—Advertisement.

WOLFF NOT TO APPEAL HIS CASE

E. B. Wolff, recently ousted by orders from the International Boilermakers' Union as secretary of the Oakland branch, on the charge of being a member of the "One Big Union," said today that he would waive the right of appeal for reinstatement as a member of the union. Under rules, Wolff could ap-

Mary Pickford Weeps as She Flees L. A. Interviewers

LOS ANGELES, March 5.—Mary Pickford, weeping and worn, stumbled from the train here today on her return from Minden, Nevada, where she obtained a divorce decree from Owen Moore a few days ago. Miss Pickford waited until the passengers had all left her car, then peeped out, and seeing a battalion of newspapermen and camera men, flanked by a crowd of the curious, she fled from the opposite side of the car. As she ran, with tears streaming down her face, she stumbled and fell. Her mother helped her up, and they fled to a waiting automobile and sped away.

Miss Pickford would not pause to answer the questions fired at her by eager interviewers, but her mother spoke for her.

"This is entirely a private matter," she said, "and neither the papers nor the public have any right to be prying into it. Why can't you leave the poor little girl alone? She's nervous and broken up. Can't you see she's crying? This is just needless cruelty."

BIG STILL SEIZED IN HOME RAID

Federal officers last night confiscated a 250-gallon whisky plant which was "hot" with its load of liquor, arrested Joe Mantovan and destroyed what they say was the source of supply of much of the "bootleg" stuff that has been sold around Oakland recently, when they raided Mantovan's home at 2009 Eighty-second avenue. Two stills were found in operation; both too hot to move. The confiscated stills are of copper and the most elaborate ever taken here.

M. T. Gasto of 502 Washington street was arrested while carrying a bottle of grape juice with a "kick" in it and released on $500 bond.

John Sutich and wife of 218 Standard avenue, Richmond, must appear in the federal court Monday to explain why they have eighty-eight gallons of wine and ten pints of beer in their home.

Manuel Corey and Charles H. Baker, the latter a negro, furnished $500 bonds after having been arrested for carrying liquor. Corey had a bottle of wine in a suitcase, while Baker had a flask of whisky on his hip.

Joe Meschling of 303 Sixteenth street, Richmond, was freed on $500 bond after having been arrested with a "bulging hip pocket."

Oakland Women Open Fight Against Rent Profiteering

California state law is being con- sidered today for some relief which may be afforded a tenant against a profiteering landlord. The section of the civil code which provides that a tenant may within the law serve written notice upon their landlords in case necessary repairs are not made to the property which they lease; and that if a reasonable period of time passes without the work being accomplished they may have it done themselves at a cost not exceeding one month's rental, is being recited as one of the remedies which may be applied by tenants to property which is in a dilapidated condition.

Mrs. Lydia Wolff and a committee of the Oakland Housewives' League have undertaken an investigation of the status of lessees and landlords in this city and have inaugurated a brisk fight against profiteering in rents. The preliminary report which will probably be made at the meeting of the league on Saturday evening April 10th, is expected to create something of a stir and to initiate some definite action against those who are taking advantage of present housing conditions to boost rents.

San Francisco citizens have started warfare on the rent gougers. The Public Welfare Commission of the Board of Supervisors held a hearing yesterday at which some score of men and women offered protest against exorbitant rents. The adoption of a plan recently used in New York which resulted in the appointment of a permanent and active commission on adjustments between landlord and tenant was suggested by Roy R. Waterbury, an attorney. Mrs. L. P. Boyce, representing San Francisco Housewives' League suggested that the city appoint a commission to create a rental adjustment bureau. "A tenant who will pay $15 a month for the tenancy of two small rooms is in need of an alienist's services," declared Dr. Ellen C. Pearson, 2695 Filbert street.

Offers were received from G. W. Taylor, vice president of the Apartment House Owners' Association and Emil Kahn, representing the Real Estate Board, to assist the public welfare commission and other committees in continuing investigation into rent profiteering.

The evidence obtained during the session will be submitted to the city attorney. By formal resolution the board of supervisors was urged to authorize a commission of arbitration and conciliation for the purpose of investigating and adjusting disputes between landlords and tenants with power to subpoena witnesses and conduct hearings.
